EASTER BUNNY IS COMING TO THE LANES!!!

Hey Dufus, do you think the Johnson's donkeys will be at the Easter animal Parade this year? Will Mr. Persichina race his grandkids in the egg & spoon race? Will Mr. & Mrs. Cherry get matching bunny tattoos? Will Ethan Pick dress up his doggy or his daddy? Will T.J. VanMarter get his hair styled in purple to match his daughters? Will Miss Harper Theno wear that adorable Easter dress again? Will Owen Traina rule with his awesome baseball arm in the balloon toss? Will Mrs. Sefchek dress up that naughty little dog Lexi for the parade? Who will find the Golden Eggs?!?!?

I don't know Carmen; I just hope the Easter bunny is plump and slow.

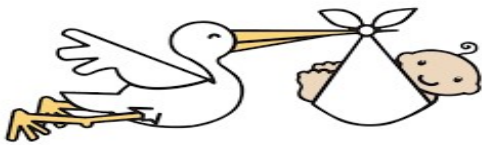

Chucks Corner:

Welcome to the Patterson family; Greg, Megan, Cole 7 and Connor 6. They moved into Mrs. Pierson's old house at 6 Buckskin. Please stop by and say Hello next time you're out for a walk.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to Gayle Mitchell and Keith Kelley!

Welcome to the World!

Robert Glicksman 6.5 years old welcomed his little sister Samantha on December 18th. At first he was a little annoyed that Santa couldn't read his handwriting since "sister" was not on his list, but now she's coming to watch him play baseball on the Blue rocks with proud parents Joe and Clarissa so she may turn out OK!

Time to watch a ballgame!

RHLL kicked off their 2019 baseball season with a fantastic Parade matched with beautiful weather on Sunday the 24th.

I headed over to get a look at all the floats and talk to some of the players from the Lanes.

Evan Kelley, on the Dodgers told me he's looking forward to pitching this year. In the past his favorite position has been first base where he got a couple of outs last season. He's played soccer, basketball and football but baseball is his favorite! Evan explained how you have to look for stray balls when you're at the baseball field. When you return them to the snack shack you get a free lollipop. If the lollipop has a dot on the end, you get a free slushy! Wow, I'm heading over to look for stray balls!! He finished off by letting me know his dad Keith is the best coach ever, on a scale 1 – 10 he's a 10!

Seth is playing on the T-ball Pirates. Phoenix has the coolest team name ever: the Yardgoats!

Looks like the T-ball Dodgers are stacked this year...Layla & Brooklyn F. Olivia K. Isabelle B.

Nick Hoynacki and Linkoln Beck are looking forward to a fun season. We can also see Lucas Kim and Cashton Fine on the Intermediate Red Sox this season. Roan Theno will play on Rookie Railriders. Nathan Cohu is on the T-ball Royals. His dad Adam will be busy coaching The Knights where we can find Christian Cohu and our new kids on the block; Cole and Connor Patterson.

We also look forward to seeing Landon Becker on the Majors Dodgers. For game times go to: www.rhll.org

SATURDAY, April 20th AT 10 AM.

Following the Animal Parade each child will be able to hunt for a dozen eggs in their age group. Please make sure your child (children) only pick 12 eggs each. We will have sad faces if there are not enough eggs to go around...

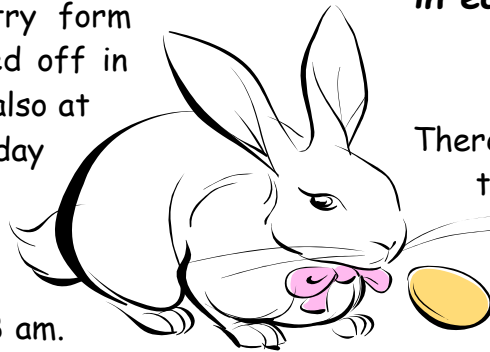

- For all children coming - please drop off one dozen, filled plastic eggs at the Jacobson's house: 11 Dapplegray. Please place your eggs in the appropriate age bin. This needs to be done no later than Friday evening 8 pm.

Age categories are: 0-2, 3-6, 7-9, 10 and above

The child who finds the Golden Egg in each age division will receive a special prize!!!

There will be coffee, snacks, face painting, the usual wild hair station, arts and crafts along with fun family games with prizes. We encourage all ages to participate!

Pets in the Lanes...

Hello,

My name is Shiloh and I am 12 years old. I have lived in the Lanes since I was 5 weeks old. My Mom has lived in the Lanes since 1994 and had 3 others like me previously. My breed is Wolf dog; I am a cross of Gray Wolf and Alaskan malamute. I know that a lot of people are intimidated by me but I am really quite shy.

I differ from other dogs in many ways the first is that I do not bark which is to my human pack one of the best things. Second is that I do not smell like a dog or get fleas. I only shed once a year which the local birds love to use to make their nests, and my coat is pretty much waterproof so I do not get baths.

My favorite things include riding in my truck or helping take care of the horses at the barn. My horse sister Lady is always chasing me because I love to roll and graze on her orchard hay.

The highlight of my day is when my Dad gets home and I get to hang out in the front yard and people watch.

Each year in November I get together with others like me from all over the United States in San Diego at our annual Wolfdog Walk.

I do like to howl mostly at sirens.

One of the biggest challenges I have heard my Mom telling people about me is that my kind is more like living with and training a cat. She tells people I am stubborn and aloof at times and I listen when it benefits me but she must not mind because I am pretty spoiled. I am welcome in the house via my doggy door but prefer the comfort of the cool grass where I watch the peacocks, squirrels, ravens and hawks and occasional egrets who love to hunt lizards.

If you are ever going by and see or hear me howling give me a howl back and I might answer you.
